Provide three copies of:

(1) The Application Form: Send three copies of the application and three copies of your writing or project sample and support work.

(2) Writing or Project Sample: This should be an example of the project you plan to work on or complete at Paisano. If this is not possible, send an example from previous work(s) that most closely resembles your proposed project. In the space below, give the title and form (poetry, short story, articles, essays, etc.).

The total number of pages submitted (project sample and supporting work) should not exceed 50 manuscript pages. Judges will read only the first 50 pages submitted. Published books (fiction or nonfiction, poetry, etc.) may be included.

(3) Other Supporting Work: This is included in the 50-page limit. It can be published or unpublished writing or reviews of your published work that you would like to offer in support of your application in addition to the writing sample. In the space below, give the title, form and date (if published). You may submit supporting material on electronic media; however, judges are not obligated to view them. Keep a copy of all work submitted.

Enclose the $20.00 non-refundable application fee (check or money order) made payable to The University of Texas at Austin. If applying for both the Jones and the Johnston fellowships, include the $30.00 non-refundable application fee for both applications in your packet for the Ralph A. Johnston Memorial Fellowship and check the box on page 1 of that application. You must submit each application and its accompanying materials in separate packets, but they can be sent in the same envelope or box, clearly marked. Do not use binders, notebooks, separators, etc. - larger paperclips or binder clips are recommended.
